

YOUR MTA

Motorcycle Dealer Membership Criteria

Chief Executive's Message

The MTA brand in its many forms has been proudly displayed on automotive businesses across New Zealand since 1917.

Joining the MTA makes you part of the MTA automotive family. Being part of the MTA family means you will meet and uphold MTA's high standards. We make no apologies for setting high standards, as it's these standards that separate us from the cowboys in the industry.

Indeed, we'll continue to lift our standards as we want the MTA family to represent the very best in our industry. We also want members to aspire to go beyond MTA's minimum standards. This is great for the member and for the betterment of our industry.

As you'll see in this booklet, MTA's standards fall into 2 categories, both of which focus on ensuring your business:

- 1. Meets Minimum Requirements e.g. you have employment agreements in place and meet your health and safety obligations, and
- 2. Acts in accordance with the "MTA Way". This includes operating according to a code of ethics which sets out how you will act as an employer and as a provider of services to the general public.

To make sure these standards are maintained, we check every member against them at least once every 3 years. If you are looking to join the MTA family, the first standards review may be a little daunting but absolutely necessary to ensure you're good enough to join us.

In both instances, if we identify issues that need sorting out, we'll work with you as much as we can to get you across the line. If, however, we cannot resolve these issues then your membership may be cancelled or, if you are looking to join, you will not be able to become an MTA member.

If you have any questions about MTA's standards, please call us on 0800 222 882.

MTA Strategic Principles

What does MTA stand for and what we can do for you as a member?

MTA aims to be the association that automotive businesses want to join. We want to be a key part of your business and help you create a sustainable business advantage. We also want to provide leadership for the industry.

MTA has four key areas of strategic focus:

MTA Brand

MTA is trusted and respected by consumers, members, industry, and government.

Advocacy

MTA influences and shapes policy and public opinion to the advantage of members.

Financial

MTA operates efficiently and is financially sustainable, so Members receive value for money.

Members

MTA is the “go to” place for members to make their business more successful and adaptive to change

MTA provides a range of products and services to help Members reach and maintain the MTA Standards:

- Mediation – advice on dealing with customer complaints, along with direct interaction with customers to facilitate resolution to disputes
- HR advice – MTA advisors can help guide you on staff management and records
- MTA Toolbox – Members have access to a comprehensive library of great advice and business templates ready for you (e.g. standard employment contracts, health and safety information)
- Local focus – MTA Regional Coordinators work with MTA Regional Committees to ensure you get the help you need that is relevant to your region
- Personal touch – MTA Member Support Officers, that can help and guide you as part of your membership

Membership that meets the standard

All MTA Member businesses have an enduring obligation to:

- meet minimum requirements including complying with all relevant legislative requirements
- have written employment contracts for all staff
- respect minimum wage requirements
- have staff with the qualifications and experience reasonably expected for membership
- be insured
- be considerate to the environment
- be of good character. e.g.
 - no history of financial trouble (credit check on business and/or directors)
 - no history of serious customer disputes
 - no director or shareholder with a conviction for a serious offence (one involving deception, fraud, or violence)
- score at least 65% against the “MTA Way” standards.

What are the MTA Standards?

Rules and Bylaws

These are the core constitutional documents for the MTA.

The Rules and Bylaws give the MTA board the authority to set, monitor, and enforce standards for MTA membership.

Code of Ethics

Is a set of professional principles to guide MTA members in conducting their business with honesty and integrity.

Minimum Requirements and the MTA Way

The MTA Standards, described in the membership criteria, seek to ensure that MTA member businesses operate in line with (or better than) best practices for technical work, ethical behaviour, customer services, and commercial activities

Some elements of the standards have been specifically developed by MTA; while others reference external rules like New Zealand Legislation which all businesses would be expected to follow.

Sector-specific

Targeted standards by sector and sub-sector. These standards have developed according to the different needs of each sector: (broadly Repairers, Dealerships and Service Stations).

New Zealand Legislation

NZ law is the foundational element. As a legal entity trading in New Zealand, you are obliged to comply with all New Zealand Laws.

How the MTA Standards assessment works

MTA prospects and members will be assessed against the MTA Standard using the criteria below to be able to say they passed the MTA Standard.

The table below outlines the standards assessment framework with the proportion that section contributes to the overall mark:

Requirements	Description	Prospect	Existing Member
Minimum Requirements	Six important Minimum Requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Compliance with legislation • HR Requirements • H and S Requirements • Min $1M business liability insurance • Qualification Standards • No serious misconduct 	No membership until standard is met 	Time to resolve will be proportional to the assessed gaps It will be agreed in advance between MTA and the Member
Premises, Operational and Environmental Excellence - The "MTA Way"	Physical site expectations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Roadside and external appearance • Reception and customer areas • Work areas • Presentation of staff, vehicles, invoices and all non-fixed public facing material Operational and Environmental Excellence <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Living the MTA Code of Ethics • Treatment of the Environment • Treatment of customer and staff 	65% pass mark required
The MTA Board will take into consideration all prospects and members and consider any borderline cases under a separate exceptions process where appropriate.

An MTA prospect or member:

- may be physically audited at any time and
- will be audited (at least) once every three years
- may be asked to provide examples / self-assess to show standard achievement periodically

What happens if a member does not score 65% or above?

- If the organisation applying is a new prospect, MTA may decide to offer them a probationary type of membership, to help them get up to standard as soon as is practicable.
- If a member scores below 65%, MTA will work with the member to give them a 'hand-up' to drive-up their score. If the score is significantly below 65%, then the member may receive a censure from the Board (under s.71 of MTA Bylaws). MTA will create a remediation policy with the member and follow-up to ensure they can comply within an agreed time period.

- If a member fails to make progress within a reasonable period, then the Board may notify the member of misconduct, either minor or serious (under s.5 of MTA Bylaws). A 'reasonable time period' will be determined by the type of problem that needs rectification – a legal requirement for example will need amending faster than something requiring time and cost but is not a legal requirement.
- The Board have the power to either grant or refuse membership and determine the basis on which it is granted, without having to give a reason. This decision will be final.

MTA Prospects and Members will be assessed in the following way
